

Quest 2019 Vendor Information

The vendor application is now closed, thank you to all that applied and we look forward to seeing you at Quest 2019!

Why become a vendor at Quest?

Are you an education focused business trying to generate interest and sales?

An entrepreneur launching a new product or seeking feedback?

An industry veteran hoping to connect with decision makers or enhance existing relationships?

If so, and you can align your contribution at Quest specifically to our theme of Indigenous Education and Equity then we welcome your application for Quest 2019.

With over 1000 educators, community partners and industry leaders from across Canada and around the world attending Quest, vendors have a unique platform to showcase their innovative products and services.

Get the most out of this opportunity by:

- Providing resources that align CLEARLY with the conference theme Indigenous Education and Equity
- Displaying materials that are intentional (e.g. representative of the YRDSB's foci, and our Keynote Presenters/Speakers)
- Finding a way to bring people to your display table. Draw them in with interactive demonstrations, draws and samples.

Vendors will be selected based upon their connection to the theme of Quest 2019: Indigenous Education and Equity

*Each display table comes with 1 Vendor pass (which includes breakfast and lunch). Additional vendor pass can be purchased for $50 each. Each Vendor representative will receive:

- A 6 or 8 ft table with cover and chair(s)
- Power (if required) and wireless internet access (the venue will NOT provide power cords)
- Vendor pass – presentations via viewing stations, breakfast and lunch

Online registration is now open! Fill out the application form by Friday, May 31st, 2019.

A Quest representative will be in touch to confirm your acceptance by the end of June.
