

Participant FAQs

- 1. What is the conference hashtag? Which accounts should I follow? The conference hashtag is #YRDSBQuest. Participants should follow @YRDSB on Twitter and @yrdsbquest on Instagram for updates.
- 2. What is the Quest Playground? This year, the Quest Playground is a virtual environment where staff and students are invited to participate in a 'choose your own adventure' learning experience. As part of this experience, educators and students will have the opportunity to explore, learn, and share examples of how student voice is leveraged to shape ethical leadership through modern learning and digital literacy in YRDSB.
- 3. What is the Quest Backyard? This year, the Quest Backyard is a virtual environment where staff and students are invited to participate in a 'choose your own adventure' learning experience. As part of this experience, educators and students will have the opportunity to explore, learn, and share examples of how student voice is leveraged to shape ethical leadership through land based and environmental literacy in YRDSB.
- 4. What is the Quest Studio Space? The Quest 2022 Studio Space, (formerly Artonomy) is a virtual environment. The Studio will share the ongoing work and continued focus and commitment to dismantling anti-Black racism through the Arts with community Arts partners in YRDSB schools where staff and students are invited to view learning in progress. Educators and students will have the opportunity to explore, learn, and reflect on the work that is being done to amplify student voice with support of community artists. In addition, educators and students will also have opportunities to participate in a 'choose your own adventure' experiential learning through the Arts with Indigenous Arts, digital tools and land-based learning. Further details to follow.