Submission Criteria for Quest Journal

Purpose:

- to promote a culture of inquiry and reflection within the greater learning community
- to inform and strengthen inquiry, theory and practice
- to build on effective pedagogy, leadership, and practice to broaden our understanding of leadership, student achievement and well-being

Themes for the Journal:

The Quest Journal, Volume 12 will focus on these key themes:

- equity
- modern learning
- innovation
- excellence
- professional culture

All Submissions must include the following features:

- 750-2000 words
- Abstract (Brief Explanation of Submission)
- Key Words (5-10 key words)
- Submit in Word format (not pdf)
- Referencing such as American Psychological Association (APA)

Types of Submissions:

- Literature Reviews
- Empirical Research
- Action Research
- Narratives
- Multimedia (videos/images with explanatory text)

Publication and Circulation:

- The online journal will contain abstracts of papers written by contributors on the annual Quest theme, with e-links to the entire paper.
- Annual electronic publication promoted through the Quest Conference
- Circulation will be through the Quest Conference website.

Contacts:

For questions related to journal submissions, please contact:
Melissa Murray
Vice-Principal
melissa.murray@yrdsb.ca